For Better Roads.

Better roads are essential to the profitable marketing of the farmer's crop.

They are essential to better living, to the farmer's comfort and convenience; essential to the reasonable pleasure of his family, and roads mark the standing of every community.

The general objection to living in the country is the difficulty of "getting about." You want to get about, you need to get about, you must get about, if you properly market your crops, if you are to keep your machinery in good order, if you send your children to school, if you go to church or attend the meetings of the neighborhood clubs.

These are not little things. They are great things. Bad roads impose the heaviest tax upon the farmer that he pays, and he is certain to pay it whether he knows it or not. He pays it in the wear and tear on all of his vehicles. He pays it in loss of time. He pays it in the additional labor imposed upon his stock. He pays it through the labor or self-denial of his family.

Work for better roads as you would work to put out a fire in your barn. Study the best methods for building and maintaining better roads as you go along. The roads of a community are largely determined by local conditions. Some communities have an abundance of road-making material. Others have to rely upon a material of secondary value. The farmers ought to determine what material to use, and they ought to ask engineers how best to use that material.

Better roads are essential to better business, better farming and better living.—Home and Farm.

Should Put Up With Anderson.

When Clay City and Powell county people drive over to Mt. Sterling as scores of them do every month they should stop with G. W. Anderson, Jr. and put up their horses. He will treat you right, and you may rest assured that your horse will be well cared for. George was formerly in business in Clay City and while here made hundreds of friends that should not forget him when they have some business to throw in his way.

High Price for Cattle.

On Monday of last week at Chicago a choice lot of beef cattle sold at $10.40 per hundred-weight on foot, said to be the highest price ever paid for beef animals since war times. A few days previous one lot was sold on the same market at $10.25 per hundred. The record price was secured by an Illinois feeder. They were corn fed cattle and an exceptionally fine lot.

Mrs. A. R. Hale.

Mrs. A. R. Hale died at her home in the country Tuesday night of a complication of diseases. She had been a constant sufferer for several years and underwent many operations.

Although deprived of all the blessings of good health, she bore her sufferings patiently with cheerful disposition. Deceased was one of youngest daughters of Isaac and Edith Mize. Mrs. Hale was a member of the Bryan Station Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. She is survived by her husband and one dear little boy, Roger Vaughn Hale, who greatly mourns her loss. Four sisters and two brothers survive her. They are Mrs. Asa Haggard, of this county, Mrs. J. W. McKinney, of Versailles, Mrs. W. R. Day, of Arkansas, Mrs. Florence Locknane, of Washington, D. C., J. W. Mize, of Versailles, Mo., and W. O. Mize, of Pine Grove, Ky. Services at the house Friday morning, Rev. I. J. Spencer officiating, and burial in the Winchester cemetery.—Lexington Leader.

Mrs. Hale and her husband are both former residents of Clay City before marriage and each have numerous friends in this city and county.

K. P.'s to Run Excursion.

The K. P.'s. will run a big excursion August 27th from Lexington to Natural Bridge. The children of the Pythian home at Lexington will occupy a special, while the excursion is promoted for the various K. P. Lodges of the Bluegrass section and all along the line of the L. & E. the passengers will not be made up solely of them. All good people are invited to go long for a gala day. Basket dinners are one of the features.

See Mrs. Williams' new ad this week and call there and get your purchase.

Furnace.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bryant, August 17th, a girl—Lilly Gay.

Mr. Oscar Mackey and family of Clay City, visited relatives here from Friday till Monday.

Misses Belle and Myrtle Broadus, of Miller's creek, were the guests of their sister, Mrs. Mayma Newkirk Sunday.

Protracted meeting commences at the Christian church at this place next Saturday night to be conducted by Rev. Combs.

Lilly, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Newkirk, who has been sick for several days, we are glad to say is improving.

Death of Mrs. Hammans.

Mrs. Louise Hammans, aged eighty-two years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. P. Johnson, at Waltersville late Monday evening after a long illness. Funeral services at the residence by Eld. D. H. Matherly, and burial in the Stanton cemetery Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Hammans is the widow of Silas Hammans and is the mother of fifteen children ten of whom are now living. Mrs. A. P. Johnson and Mrs. Nannie Weaver of this city and James Hammans, of Stanton, are all of the children that are now living in the county.

Work Unsatisfactory.

Work on the new railroad over in Estill is reported very unsatisfactory to the laborers. They are leaving there by scores as well as they are flocking there in great numbers. It is claimed by many who return from over there that the time they get to work doesn't more than pay their board. They are docked for every minute lost and do not any week get to put in more than half time. Board is $4.00 and $5.00 per week and wages $1.50 and $1.75 per day.

SPOUT SPRING.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses McKinney visited relatives in Clark county this week.

Little Pearl, the cripple daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Christopher continues very sick.

Elber J. I. Wills, of Beattyville, will preach at the Baptist church here Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Shelt McKinney was called to the bedside of her aunt, Mrs. Thos. Conlee, near Stanton the first of the week.

Pastor L. S. Fryman of the Jackson's chapel church and Pastor Harvey Johnson of the Kimbrell's chapel church are conducting protracted services at the Rev. Fryman's church.

The City Council of Winchester has permitted the two telephone companies in that city to consolidate. The law forbids that, but it is best for the users of telephones as it gives complete service at half cost.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Services 2nd and 3rd Sabbaths of each month. Prayer Meetings, Wednesday evenings. Rev. J. C. Hanley, Pastor.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury,

"Publication of the names of campaign contributors" is what Roosevelt's progressive party promises. After the progressive party has been elected to power a law will be put on the statute books requiring that the names of all who contribute to the campaign funds of the various parties shall be printed before the election. Will the new party show its faith in this declaration by publishing the names of those who contributed to the Roosevelt primary campaign fund and to the fund now being raised for the progressive party? This is an interesting question and you should pass it on to the progressive newspaper and to the progressive politician. It would not be a bad plan to put the question up to Theodore Roosevelt himself. His address is Oyster Bay, New York. One hundred thousand letters asking this very pertinent and interesting question would no doubt elicit a mighty roar from the Big Moose!—Exchange.

It seems too bad that Mr. Taft's cabinet is breaking up now, with next March so far away.

SWEET CLOVER
A great fertilizer, and a hardy vigorous forage plant for hay and pasture. Will grow in any soil, even in rocky places. Can be sown with spring oats, or sown alone in May for meadow, and sown in with corn at the last cultivation. Prices of seed, and circular how to grow it sent on request.
BOYHARA SEED CO., Falmouth, Ky.

From a reward of $125 offered by a construction company building a part of the L. & N. railroad in Estill county it seems that the public of Estill county have found grievances of the L. & N. and its methods and have given the company a note of some kind of warning. The company is also having some trouble over at Beatyville where they propose to confiscate a good portion of the town's already limited streets.

Teddyfobia is raging in all parts of the county and is spreading fast. Most dangerous and unpleasant diseases originate and flourish best among the colored population, but it is not the case with Teddyfobia.

Arizona wants a nickname. That ought to be easy, considering the number of states that have nicknames they would like to get rid of.

Don't forget our Summer Clearance Sale of spring and summer goods. Mrs. J. W. Williams, Farmers should remember it is a five dollar fine to allow thistles to seed on your place. And while you are cutting the thistles why not cut all the other filth on your place.

It has rained every day this week. The ground is now wetter than it has been for three or four months. Early corn is now safe from drouth which may later come.

Elder J. I. Wills, of Beattyville, will preach at Powell's Valley church Saturday and Sunday mornings at 11 o'clock and at Salem church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The protracted meeting continues at the Christian church with great interest and good results. There are about twenty additions to date, all but three of these are by baptism.

The big Blue Grass Fair was the most successful of any ever before held from every point of view. The receipts were sufficient for the management to liquidate all of its debts.

Director of Experiment Station Dead.

Prof. M. A. Scovell, director of the Kentucky Experiment Station and Dean of the College of Agriculture, State University, died at his home near Lexington last Thursday night. Prof. Scovell was fifty-five years old and had been director of the Experiment Station since 1885.

Judge T. J. Fletcher will have a public sale of his household and kitchen furniture Saturday, August 31st and move to Miami, Texas. He will also sell his residence in this city. See posters for particulars. The removal of the Judge from Clay City will be like the removal of an old land mark. His numerous friends here will regret to see him and his estimable family depart from our midst.

Electric Bitters
Succeed when everything else fails. In nervous prostration and female weaknesses they are the supreme remedy, as thousands have testified. FOR KIDNEY, LIVER AND STOMACH TROUBLE. It is the best medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter.

A WOMAN'S WISDOM.

The worried mother wakes up to hear her baby's heavy breathing—a little cough—perhaps the croup or whooping cough. She does not want to send for the doctor when perhaps the trouble does not amount to much. Finally she thinks of that medical book her father gave her, The Common Sense Medical Adviser, by R. V. Pierce, M. D. She says "just the thing to find out what is the matter with the little dear." Two million households in this country own one—and it's to be had for only 31c. in stamps—1,000 pages in splendid cloth binding. A good family adviser in any emergency. It is for either sex. This is what many women write Dr. Pierce—in respect to his "Favorite Prescription," a remedy which has made thousands of melancholy and miserable women cheerful and happy, by curing the painful womanly diseases which undermine a woman's health and strength.

"My desire is to write a few lines to let you know what your valuable medicine has done for me," writes Mrs. MARGARET ZUBERT, of 323 S. Bentall Street, Baltimore, Md. "Before the storek came to our house I was a very sick woman. I wrote you for advice which was kindly given and which made me a different woman in a short time. After taking the first bottle of 'Favorite Prescription' I began improving so that I hardly knew I was in such a condition. I did my own housework—washing and ironing, cooking, sewing, and the worst of all nursed three children who had whooping cough. I hardly knew of the advent ten minutes before—so easy was it. The baby is as fat as a butter-ball. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best medicine for any woman to take when in this condition. I recommend it to all my friends."

WILSON'S SPEECH HIGHLY PRAISED

Press and Public Men Join In Chorus of Approval.

DISCREET, ABLE, SAFE, SANE.

"Will Impress the Country Favorably," Declares William Jennings Bryan.
"Admirable Pronouncement," Says Champ Clark—"Appeals Strongly to Every Legitimate Business Interest," Declares John W. Kern.

An Admirable Speech.
Hon. William J. Bryan—"Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is admirable. It is original in its treatment of the issues of the campaign. I am sure the address will impress the country favorably."

Appeals Strongly to Every Legitimate Business Interest.

John W. Kern, Senator From Indiana—"Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is a masterpiece, setting forth with great clearness his conception of the work to be accomplished by the Democratic party under his leadership.
It is in complete harmony with the progressive sentiment of the country, but also appeals strongly to every legitimate business interest."

Will Take High Rank.
Champ Clark, Speaker of the House of Representatives—"Considered from a literary standpoint, Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance will take high rank in the political output of the year. It will make pleasant reading and therefore will prove a fetching campaign document. He discusses the issues of the day philosophically, clearly and forcibly. Its courteous tone will allay opposition and win him friends. It is an admirable pronouncement."

Battle Hymn of Democracy.
Senator Gore of Oklahoma—"The closing sentence of his speech will become the battle hymn of Democracy in the pending campaign: 'I thank God and take courage.' It is at once a psalm of praise and is a summons of patriotic duty."

Discreet, Able, Safe and Sane.
John E. Lamb, ex-Representative From Indiana—"Speech is discreet, able, safe and sane. Governor Wilson believes in the efficacy of the scalpel rather than the big stick. His dissection of trust and tariff evils is unique and convincing. His suggestions of reform in methods of government and reduction of tariff schedules will meet with approval of legitimate business and the laboring masses as well."

Points the Way For Justice.
Hoke Smith, Senator From Georgia.
—"I am delighted with Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance. It is a superb statement of the present purpose of the Democracy and points the way for justice to all through real progress by law under the constitution.
With his election assured, it should give confidence to honest business and new courage to those who need a square deal."

Lays His Soul Bare.
John F. Fitzgerald, Mayor of Boston.
—"Governor Wilson's acceptance is characteristic of the man. He lays his soul bare to the people and asks them to join with him, irrespective of party, in righting present wrongs without undue clamor or injury to legitimate interests. He lays emphasis on constructive thinking, and I believe this optimizes one of the nation's greatest needs at the present time. It will be President Wilson overwhelmingly in November."

Progressive, but Not Wild.
Thomas Mott Osborne, Auburn, N. Y.
—"Governor Wilson's speech fits the occasion and the man—progressive, but not wild; sane, strong and unmistakeably Democratic. It makes an inspiring opening of the campaign, indicating clearly and nobly the spirit in which the leaders of our regenerated Democratic party must work; not one of mere 'partisan make believe,' but of honesty and justice toward all men."

Prophetic of Success.
Governor William H. Mann of Virginia—"I think it was an admirable speech. It was wise, conservative, comprehensive, prophetic not only of Democratic success, but of Democratic supremacy for years to come."

Rings True in Every Sentence.
Governor Frederick W. Plafied of Maine—"It is a splendid presentation of the case for the American people.
It is a ringing statement and in every sentence rings true."

LABOR AND THE RULE OF RIGHT.

The working people of America—if they must be distinguished from the minority that constitutes the rest of it—are, of course, the backbone of the nation. No law that safeguards their life, that improves the physical and moral conditions under which they live, that makes their hours of labor rational and tolerable, that gives them freedom to act in their own interest and that protects them where they cannot protect themselves can properly be regarded as class legislation or as anything but as a measure taken in the interest of the whole people, whose partnership in right action we are trying to establish and make real and practical. It is in this spirit that we shall act if we are genuine spokesmen of the whole country.—From Woodrow Wilson's Speech Accepting the Democratic Nomination.

John A. Dix, Governor of New York—"Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is marked with broad vision and clear thought, expressed in language every American can understand. As a business man and manufacturer, I am especially pleased with his positive and statesmanlike position on the paramount issue of tariff reform and his demand for an immediate downward revision. In sincerity, wise statement and comprehensive grasp of great principles and their application of the fundamental needs of the country the speech is Jeffersonian to the core. It contains no appeal to passion and excites no prejudice.
Governor Wilson has presented to his party and to the nation clear conception of the truth that the real struggle in the pending campaign is between the concentrated powers of privilege and the aspiration of the American people to realize in their government and their economic industrial and social relations the full measure of the principles of freedom, justice and progress, upon which the republic was founded. To all the issues and every national need Governor Wilson applies the rule of right and common advantage. The reforms he advocates are far-reaching, but they are necessary, sound and practical. The speech will awaken and stir the national conscience and lead to a triumph that will restore to the people the control of their government and inaugurate a new and happier epoch in the life and development of the republic."

Will Ring Through the Country.
Governor George W. Donaghy, Arkansas—"It was a great speech. It will ring through the country. It is just what he should have said. The people have never felt more confident of success since the first nomination of Grover Cleveland."

Iowa For Wilson.
Judge Martin J. Wade, Iowa—"For the first time since the state was admitted to the Union Iowa will this year give its electoral vote to the Democratic nominee for president."

HILLSIDE DOPE. By Elma Elam Feudist.

Murmurs of a Feudist—50 Years Ago.
In me chambers I saw the ghost of the man I kill
And spied the butcher knife in his rib to the hilt;
The freezin' sweat of fear stood upon my wrinkled brow,
Which fetch recollections of his dern ole brindle cow.
He wouldn't keep the ole heifer out o' my 'tater patch.
And I give 'im orders to never again lift my cabin latch;
He got sore and wouldn't speak to his cousin, my wife,
And I proceeded to butcher him with my butcher knife.

The Saint.
He labors hard the live-long week
In the elm and beech and birch;
But on the Sabbath he never goes
To town to the Christians' church.

He worries not o'er Wm-Lung's dinner
And he does no furrin beggin';
They say he's a hopeless sinner
'Kase he won't do their bootleggin'.

He stays to him and minds his dear biz
And earns chuck for his mother;
All furrin heathen may go to hades
When he can help a Lillside brother.

Chorus.
Silent Saint, Oh, Saint,
If there's a pure heaven,
A d if ther sin't,
You're worthy of seven.

From the Hell-Fer-Sartin Bugle.
The Gentleman of the Tripod hereby serves notice on all loafers that they positively must not bum cigarettes from our compositor. We have so many delinquents who won't pay up that we can't afford to pay him enough to buy so many.

Our town board had better have the sidewalks fixed. One of these days some still raiding galoot will get what he needs and sue the town and God knows the town hasn't got the money to pay a fine.

Our Game Warden requests us to serve notice on all hunters that they must secure license to kill any varmint but Bull Moose (rs).

Saltersville and New York are getting to be big rays in the timelight of notoriety. Oh, you Sunday school-looking Jackson and Hell-Fer-Sartin.

Hank Miller, our desperado, has become very much elated and consequently more dangerous because he just discovered that his birth happened simultaneously with that of Policeman Becker.

Dr. Germs is scared of the mountains.
The mountains are scared of Dr. Germs.
We are scared only of many fountains Of Hookfeller and bluegrass rocky-worms.

Farm Drain Tile Make Your Wet Land Productive.

By the use of drain tile you can turn that low, wet, useless, swampy field into the most productive spot on your farm. Good tile, properly placed, not only carries off surplus water, it admits air to the soil and makes it easy to work.
It improves any soil. The increase in the value of the land is many times the cost of the tile. The first year's crop from tiled land pays for it. Any body can do the work successfully. Write for particulars or call at our plant.

Very Serious
It is a very serious matter to ask for one medicine and have the wrong one given you. For this reason we urge you in buying to be careful to get the genuine—

THE FORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT Liver Medicine

The reputation of this old, reliable medicine, for constipation, indigestion and liver trouble, is firmly established. It does not imitate other medicines. It is better than others, or it would not be the favorite liver powder, with a larger sale than all others combined.

Couldn't Walk!

"I used to be troubled with a weakness peculiar to women," writes Mrs. Anna Jones, of Kenny, Ill. "For nearly a year, I could not walk, without holding my sides.
I tried several different doctors, but I grew worse. Finally, our druggist advised Cardui for my complaint. I was so thin, my weight was 115. Now, I weigh 163, and I am never sick. I ride horseback as good as ever. I am in fine health at 52 years."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

We have thousands of such letters, and more are arriving daily. Such earnest testimony from those who have tried it, surely proves the great value of this vegetable, tonic medicine, for women.

Cardui relieves women's sufferings, and builds weak women up to health and strength. If you are a woman, give it a trial. It should help you, for it has helped a million others. It is made from pure, harmless, herb ingredients, which act promptly and surely on the womanly organs.
It is a good tonic. Try it! Your druggist sells it.
